Ringling in the New Year at Foley with what's New!

WaterMat at the Swim Dock

To replace the Saturn that bit the dust last summer, we will be getting a WaterMat. This huge floating soft mat can hold about 12 people. You can walk on water, or even run, jump, slip, and slide on the WaterMat. Create your own wild WaterMat games or just hang out leisurely with your cabin group!

(picture from the overton's website)

Fitness Studio comes to Foley

After reading your feedback forms and thinking about our space at Foley, we are going to turn the Wabi Building into a Fitness Studio for yoga, dance, pilates, martial arts and more!

We are envisioning finishing the walls, doing something to the floor (roll out mats or carpet) to soften the impact of feet and knees, cubbies and storage racks to hold equipment like exercise mats and personal gear. We will install an electronic system complete with a flat screen TV, DVD player and stereo system. If you have any classes that you would like offered in our, please let us know!

The Long Lasting Benefits of Camp

by American Camp Association®

Camp has become a part of the fabric of America — conjuring special memories of hiking, swimming, friendships, and adventure for generations. When children go to camp, they'll likely come home gushing about the lifelong friends they've made, and the exciting adventures they had. What they probably won't tell you about are the life lessons camp has given them — those skills that, if nurtured at home after camp, translate into a lasting self-confidence, an awareness of the importance of kindness, and a greater comfort in voicing their opinions.

For 150 years, camp has been changing lives — allowing all children to feel successful, especially those who may struggle with traditional educational settings. Camp is full of fun and excitement, but it is so much more — developing children who are better equipped to lead in the twenty-first century with skills such as independence, empathy, the ability to work as part of a team, and a broader world view.

- Camp is a safe and nurturing environment that enhances social skills. Camp is for everyone, so children and youth have the opportunity to meet and interact with peers from outside their school environment.
- Camp supplements traditional education. Camps use intentional programming to create a balance of experiential learning opportunities that are physical, emotional, and social.
- Camp provides experiences that promote self confidence and future academic growth. American Camp Association® (ACA) independent research shows that parents and camp staff, as well as the campers themselves, report significant growth in several areas, including leadership, independence, social comfort, and values and decisions.

- Camp encourages a respect and love of nature. Children are able to learn about the natural world. Camp also gives them a chance to “unplug.” More and more experts are advocating the value of time spent in nature for children — and camp is a perfect place to do that.
- Camp provides the opportunity to stay physically active. Camp is the ultimate outdoor experience with programs that offer physical activities and sports that enhance health and teach self-confidence. Camp is a natural extension of the classroom. Research indicates that by participating in strategically planned, structured summer experiences, children reduce summer learning loss. Camp challenges children, keeps them engaged, develops creativity and their talents, and expands their horizons. It's never too early to think about camp for next year.

Through the Mission of Camp Foley, we look forward to partnering with our parents to insure all our campers arrive home with these long lasting benefits. See you in 2011!

2010 Scholarship Donors

Camp Foley would like to extend a big THANK YOU to everyone who supports this program through contributions. Thanks in part to Camp Foley's Alumni Triathlon; we exceeded the goal we set last year by $1000!

In 2010, the Camp Foley scholarship program received generous donations totaling $8113.52. Due to the slow economy, we had more inquires for camper scholarships than we in past years, and were, fortunately, able to offer full and partial scholarships to 20 deserving applicants. Our scholarship campers add diversity to our camp community, generally coming from inner city and rural settings. Some of them are wards of the state, being raised by a grandparent, from low income families struggling to make ends meet, or from needy families seeking opportunities to provide their kids with positive alternatives to inner city gangs, drugs, rural isolation and/or other challenges. We would like to keep the goal for donations for 2011 at $8000, to allow us to continue to offer the Foley experience to as many deserving applicants as possible. Thank you all for truly making a difference in the lives of Camp Foley's scholarship campers – you are AWESOME!!

Here is what a few of the scholarship recipients had to say about their 2010 Foley experience:

“I was really excited about doing trap for the first time! It was fun learning how to do a new thing while having people cheering you on. Thank you for another great experience at Camp Foley.” Girl age 13

“I enjoyed almost everything about camp! My first time playing paintball was a blast, my first time shooting shotguns was an explosion of greatness, and my first time away from home without knowing anybody I was going to meet was made a blast! The staff were friendly, the campers were funny and friendly, and the activities were awesome! I will cherish these memories forever, and it is all thanks to your extremely helpful financial aid, especially since we are tight on money right now...” Boy age 11

“The counselors were patient with me when I was struggling with an activity...I met new friends from all over the world. I like cabin time because I got a chance to get to know my cabin mates ...I had a good time this year!” Girl age 10

Foley Tridictionary

Are you ever sitting around with your family, trying to remember what the traditional breakfast is on Sunday mornings? Or what the weird word that is used for the bathrooms? Well your answers are here! This summer, campers and staff took the time to write down all the traditions and words unique to Foley, in the Foley Tridictionary. Check out our website for the complete list. Here are a few highlights.

Professor Squeegee: Prof. Squeegee is the trained professional on the paintball video who explains to the campers the rules of paintball. He has a PhD in safety and in having fun and he is watched every single time the campers play paintball. Oh yeah...he is an actual paintball squeegee too.

Father John P. Foley: He was born in 1878. He founded Camp Foley, at the time known as Camp St. Thomas, in 1924. Father Foley was very involved within the College of St. Thomas, and was the President of the college at one point. He passed away in 1964.

Changeover: Between sessions, the four week campers enjoy having fun as a group in the local around Foley. Favorite changeover activities have included mini golfing, local water park, lumberjack show, or going to a movie.

Baker's Square: A favorite meal among campers and staff alike, the Baker's Square dinner consists of various kinds of soup, bread sticks, salad bar, an apple pie.

Beach duty: An old punishment for campers who need safety reminders on the waterfront. This could of included collecting dead fish, rocks, or trash.

The Disk: The Disk is a red wooden circular disk that is used in attempting to achieve the Advanced Ski Award and the Intermediate Ski Award. One must be able to stand up on and rotate oneself on the Disk.

We want our Foley Tridictionary to reflect ALL 86 years of camping! If after checking out the website you think we are still missing something let us know, and we will add it! E-mail us at fun@campfoley.com

Nike's Treasures

Even with the amazing job our counselor do cleaning up camp between each session Nike, Marie's dog, returns to the office with numerous items - shoes, balls, and more! We thank all of our campers for providing such wonderful toys for Nike.

What is happening for 2011?

Special Events!

Minute to Win It (1st & 3rd)

Following the popular tv show, we will embark on challenges lasting 1 minute and see who can get the furthest towards 1 million dollars, or maybe a million canteens, or maybe just a high five and a "way to go"... check out the Minute to Win It website to see the games and let us know which ones you think we should try out!

Earth Day (2nd & 4th)

Yes, we know there is an official Earth Day in April, but none of you are here at camp in April and let's face it, we love the Earth (as should you). So we are going to spend another couple days being nice to the planet we all call home. Muck pond adventures, hidden lake wildlife viewing/photo expeditions, plant some trees, clean up trash on big island, star gazing, who knows! The ways we can show our appreciation for the all the great nature and incredible atmosphere we have up here are endless... let us know if you have an Earth related activity or suggestion for the day!

Guitar Class Comes to Foley!

You have asked and we have listened. For this coming summer we will be offering a guitar class. It will be a three day sign up and the classes will be split based upon skill level. This activity will be rockin' and rollin' in Osawaka (the previous place of Crafts). We are looking to deck it out with music posters of artists, chord/note charts, and sweet musical décor! Guitars will be furnished, but if you are an experienced player, we suggest you bring your own g-tar!

Hollywood Dance!

Put on your dancing shoes and head to the red carpet to meet your favorite celebrity. This year our Grand Dance Festival will have a Hollywood Theme. Dress up like your favorite celebrity or become your own. Maybe a cartoon character, singer, actor, or director. See you there!

Banquet Days!

Out of This World (1st & 3rd)

When you leave planet Earth and travel up in to the great beyond, what could you possibly find? Will you find aliens dashing about on homemade crafts? Or astronauts in fancy space suits? Or perhaps space "junk" floats in Milky Way. For this banquet we will explore everything space related – moons, planets, aliens, astronauts, space ships, stars and galaxies. Get clever with your costumes or throw together some mismatched clothes and make up your own alien language.

The Wizarding World of Harry Potter (2nd & 4th)

When Foley last saw Harry and his friends (2001) they were fighting for the Tri-Wizard cup...now ten years later the Gryffindors, Hufflepuffs, Ravenclaws and Slytherin's are back to compete in Quidditch, search for the Horcruxes and finally see Harry through the final chapter of his epic journey. Be sorted in to houses, get advice from your house ghosts and help Harry, Hermione, Ron and the others finally be rid of Lord Voldemort.

New "Canteen" Items!

Through an online survey on the website, campers voted by a large majority to eliminate the pop/soda beverages from canteen and go to choices such as lemonade, Gatorade, and juice. This is happening in 2011! Also new to Canteen will be some healthier snack choices a frozen raspberry cup of yogurt or maybe trail mix with nuts and chocolate. Don't worry the candy and ice cream will still be there but with a few more options. Yum!

You Wanted it and We Listened!

- *New longer shower curtains on Girl's End
- *New skis and wakeboard have arrived
- *Solar lights on the paths in the cabin areas
- *Gaga Courts, new shapes in the cabin areas
- *Woodshop will be making a DJ stand and Adirondack Chairs
- *4 Mossberg 500 Super Bantam Shotguns
(Thanks to Aaron Nelson for writing a donation request to the company)

Earth Day! (2nd & 4th Sessions)

Earth Day explodes with a Big Bang of fun and excitement the night before as campers are actively interacting with the evening and night life of our world. Can you see yourself walking in the muck or quietly waiting for the beavers to appear or perhaps a wild and crazy game of "Glowbee"? How about a dip in the lake with the stars overhead or a flashlight hike? WOW!

Are you tired after getting to bed so late? Don't fret! The FIRST LOOOOOOONG SLEEP IN appears in Foley History! You can sleep till noon! Can't sleep? Come in your pajamas for a continental breakfast and then choose between a variety of activities that include Junk Crafts, Corn Husking (corn on the cob for lunch), Gardening, Catching Turtles and more...

The Safari BBQ comes to Foley serving chicken, hamburgers, hot dogs, corn on the cob, pasta salad, and lemonade! This is followed by a rest in the shade, lounging in the lake or other earth day activities. The afternoon continues with more adventures, which may include Pontoon Animal Viewing, exploring a pond from a canoe, searching for wild edibles, wading in Whitefish Lake, and holding a snake! The earth holds an abundance of ways to connect – come join us!

Minute to Win it! (1st & 3rd Sessions)

Ten challenges using household items. 60 seconds on the clock. $1 million on the line. Ok maybe it'll just be $1 million Foley Bucks or simply bragging rights as the best tortilla stacker on your head while wearing flippers on your hands...but still...think you can do it? You've got a Minute to Win It. Campers will have a chance to compete in 60-second challenges with household objects using some of the favorite games from the show and maybe a few of our own. But as the money increases, so does the level of difficulty. After winning some money, will you choose to stay and play, or take the cash and dash?

Just like Earth Day, we will be sleeping in and then taking a break from the competition with an outside BBQ serving chicken, hamburgers, hot dogs, corn on the cob, pasta salad, lemonade and more! This is followed by a rest in the shade, a dip in the lake and time to practice some of your favorite games.

Foley Game Room

It is happening! At the suggestion of many of our campers, pool, ping pong, foosball and air hockey are moving into a new, renovated building out by the Foley Fun Center! That old garage with the painted doors will now have finished interior walls, fans, lots of windows, music and more! WOW! It will be more spacious and will allow for new games we hope to get in the future.

Crafts and Shop Updated!

New Building

Check out the new Woodshop, now located across the road in the new building. It features a much larger work space to complete those great camp projects.

Shop Projects

Have you ever wanted to use a hammer? Saw a piece of wood? Put all of those skills to use in these great Woodshop projects. Design a 3D wooden sign that would brighten up any room. Make a Pinewood Derby Car and enter your car in the race to be crowned the Derby Champion of the session. Maybe you have a favorite camp picture you would like to create a frame for all by yourself. Or do you want to leave your mark on Foley by partaking in a camp project? Design signs for a variety of places around camp, like the Bike Trails, Swim Dock, or campfire sites. Also, by popular demand, our Woodshop classes will be constructing Adirondack Chairs to be placed along the lake front or other areas. Come find a project just right for you at Woodshop!

Renovated Space

Crafts is finally getting a permanent home all of its own! In the renovated space (the old woodshop), you can look forward to running water, two large workspaces, and easily accessible supplies.

Craft Projects

Get your creative juices flowing with the projects in Crafts this summer! Make a 3D giant letter, which could be decorated with paint or as a collage. Window silkpaint shapes will let you create any shape to collect the sun's rays. Wonder what you could make with a bunch of buttons? What about a button bracelet? Or learn to weave with a hula hoop to make a beautiful wall hanging or rug.

Also, beads are back! Try your hand at bead crocheting to make a necklace or bracelet. Beads are not just for jewelry either. Write your name or favorite phrase all in beads with bead writing. Do you know how to make pony bead animals and key chains? Learn how this summer with a variety of designs and colors. Finally, unique classes turning junk into art will be offered with finished creations such as a pig or cow to take home!

Open Studio

The possibilities are endless with Open Studio! Stop by during your free time or as a cabin group to be as creative as you possibly can be. Do you want to create a scrapbook page for some of your camp photos? Maybe make your own candle in the sand? You could also turn an old t-shirt into a beautiful Tie-dye or embellished creation. What about trying to turn an old toothbrush or fork into a bracelet? Or do you just want to see what you can create with our supplies? What do you think you could do with puzzle pieces, foam, and paint? What are you going to create in 2011

Open Studio?

- Camp Foley matches all of the scholarship money to provide a camping experience for young people.

This year, Camp Foley is going global to begin involvement with Open Arms Home for Children in South Africa. One of our alumni families, the Horans have been involved with the orphanage for a few years. Camp Foley is an "Angel". From their website www.openarmshome.com, here is what is said about being an "Angel":

Open Arms "Angels" are critical to the successful provision of love and care to every child at Open Arms Home for Children.

- Physical needs such as food, clothing and doctor's visits
- Recreational opportunities including participation in sports, art and crafts and bicycles for the children
- Most importantly, love provided by our permanent house parents and staff
- Educational needs including uniforms, supplies and textbooks

We will be getting more details about Foley's child and will share that information on our website and at camp this summer. We are hoping in our partnership to be able to send the children gifts or notes made by our Foley campers. Perhaps in the future, we can have a Foley group volunteer in South Africa!

Washo (Bathroom) Update

After years of use, the foot pedals on the Bradleys (wash fountains) have finally worn out and the internal pieces will be replaced with a system allowing for the water to be turned on with a push button! The Bradley Company was so impressed with the condition of the fountain that they are paying us to remove one these 1950's models that is not needed from the East Washo to go into their Museum! Once again Foley is famous! The other ones, all part of Foley's history, will continue to shine and be used by another generation of campers.

Journalism Class

READ ALL ABOUT IT- Journalism is coming to Foley! Do you want to investigate the hard hitting questions of Foley like "what really is in soda bread?" or "what are the best ways to avoid getting hit in paintball?" or perhaps you want to argue your right for donuts in the canteen in an opinion piece. Do you think you have what it takes to be the next Charles Schultz, and try your hand at some cartooning?

Or perhaps capturing that front page image on film or writing a review of the last night's campfire is more your style. All of this will be possible in the new Foley publication hitting stands this summer.

Radio Production Class

Is your iPod the envy of all your friends for its awesome playlists? Here's your chance to spin those tracks for all the groovin' bodies of Foley! This summer Foley is getting its very own radio program. Perhaps you'd rather make the music yourself-singing or playing an instrument? It can be done. Also we can record news features, interest stories, dialogues, and even some public service announcements- some of which may even end up on the website for those listeners at home to be kept up to date on all the happenings at Whitefish. Tune in this summer!

Tripping Program Expanded

We have heard from numerous campers that they do not want to "miss out" on camp and all of the things planned each day. Therefore, our trippers, along with the traditional three day trips, will be offering a variety of "tripping" in camp activities and out of camp day trips.

In camp "tripping" activities may include:

- *Outdoor Cooking
- *Geocaching
- *Campcraft (Ribbon Awards)
- *Survival Skills (shelter building, foraging for food, trap ping, etc.)
- *Outdoor Crafts (pottery in the fire, nature printed tea shirts, sand candles, and more)
- *Outdoor Leadership Training

Day trips are being planned:

- *Biking along the Paul Bunyan Trail
- *Geocaching - searching for registered caches out of camp
- *Canoeing to Tipi Island (a private 1.5 acre piece of land) & spending the day
- *Special Trip to Itasca State Park for the eleven and twelve year old campers

If you have any ideas, please let us know.

Are you sick of playing air guitar? Do you have a favorite Guitar Hero song? Learn how to play a real guitar in the Foley guitar class! For this banquet we will explore everything space related - moons, planets, aliens, astronauts, space ships, stars and galaxies. Get clever with your costumes or throw together some mismatched clothes and make up your own alien language.

Hollywood Dance

Put on your dancing shoes and head to the red carpet to meet your favorite celebrity. This year our Grand Dance Festival, held each year on the basketball court, will have a Hollywood Theme. Dress up like your favorite celebrity or become your own. Maybe a cartoon character, singer, actor, or director. If you don't like to dance that is okay too! Tennis, volleyball, ping pong, or even a maybe a movie will also be open to challenge a friend! We are also excited to use a new DJ stand this year at the dances! See you there!

2011 Honors

Hall of Fame

Aside from our traditional activity awards and Anchor awards that were distributed to deserving campers, the Hall of Fame is another important achievement. To achieve this recognition, a person needs to spend 10 summers at Foley as a camper and/or counselor or combination of the two. In 2011, the following people received this honor:

Tali Driessen, Melissa Ferrie and Rosie McCarty

Maddy Boyd

Claudia Leon de la Vega

Silver Paddle Award

2011 was a great Summer for Claudia Leon De La Vega who was awarded her Silver Paddle award. This is the highest honor that a younger camper may earn at Camp Foley. It encompasses all fields of camp including sportsmanship, attitude and adjustment to camp life. Claudia has been working towards this award since 2007, finally achieving this honor in 2011 as the 12th female to do so, and the 43rd camper overall. Congrats, Claudia.

New Things Around Foley in 2011

Have a ball in the new Rec Center!

We saw the addition of a brand new Recreation Center at Foley this summer. The Rec Center houses various games including foosball, air hockey, ping pong and even a full size pool table! A top of the range audio system with iPod connectivity was also installed in the Rec Center with both indoor and outdoor speakers. The Rec Center was an absolute hit with campers this summer!

The Wabi gets a face lift!

2011 saw the Wabi building being put to great use thanks to a brand new multi-purpose foam-based floor. Classes such as Drama, Yoga and Dance took full advantage of this, and were a great success as this photo shows! As well as the floor, the Wabi saw the addition of a full sound and lighting system including two 50" plasma TV's. Foley dances will never be the same again!

Highly strung Guitar class!

This summer brought music to the ears of many campers with our brand new guitar class. It proved to be rather popular with many campers signing up again and again. Music was made indoors and outdoors. Check out these action shots...

Make a splash on the mat!

A brand new water mat added even more fun at the Swim Dock this summer - and kids couldn't get enough of it! This heavy duty mat is plenty big enough for up to 12 campers, and paired with the log, proved to be one of the hottest places to be seen at camp this summer. Many games were created by the campers and staff such as "The Island Game" to play on the mat - games that were a high talking point amongst the camp community. Take a look at this wet 'n' wild photo...

Leadership Program – Thank You!

LIT 1, 2 and 3's

We had another great summer with our LIT 1, 2 and 3's! They practiced leadership skills while doing games and initiatives with their peers as well as the younger campers. They also had a lot of time to hone their organizational and leadership skills while planning a one hour special event for our younger camper cabins.

In addition, the LIT 1, 2, and 3's had a chance to create and plan a morning event for all of camp. They did a great job using their creativity with our Movie Star Day, Harry Potter Day, LIT Carnival and Camp Song Day.

Counselors in Training

These campers were going into 11th grade and were at camp for four weeks. They made a commitment to focus on their leadership and spend time with our younger campers. They assisted these campers in their cabins, at their tables, and in their activities. They also entertained them with four amazing CIT campfires. A very special thank you to these CITs! Many times we hear, "I'm going to be just like them when I grow up and be a CIT!" A big thank you to Analise Ober, Emily Newman, Isaac Lauer, Melissa Ferrie, Stephen Davis, Luke Walden, Caroline Schuler, Tate Spencer, Megan Beh, and Cameron Jackson.

Octo's

This past summer, a select few earned an invite to apply for Foley's 'Octo' program. These past campers were presented with the challenge of putting all their newly-learned leadership skills into practice by offering support to counselors and act as a mentor to campers in Fox and Coyote cabins. The following individuals participated: Ally Daily, Kelsey Thomas, Peter Hughes, Sam Sonnier, Vanna Gworek, Jessica Hickok, Char Carlton, Emily Sciortino, Chris O'Malley, Conor Brodnick, Chris Revord, Claire Revord and Maddy Boyd - Thank you for all your hard work! (Please note: In order to be considered for the Octo program in future summers, you must enroll and complete both Dishwasher and CIT programs.)

Dishwashers

On those hot summer days, we had a wonderful crew of campers who worked off some of their camp tuition while doing dishes. The following campers enhanced their work experience while helping out the camp community: Evan Patchen, Daniel Burford, Thomas Schroeder, Courtney Geller, Ari Hechter, Emily Newman, Krista Opp, Connor Sullivan, Katiana Taubenberger, Alejandra Villarreal, Miles Holt, Olivia Carlton, Alexander Balcerac, Meggie Flinn, Sam Folkman, Stephen Davis, Alexis Hoedeman, Charlotte Mokdessi, Caroline Moore, Santiago Camiro, Henry Cousineau, Olivia Demontigny, Kathryn Graf, Margaret Harrington, Joseph Harrington, Evan Stafford, Cameron Hansen and Isaac Lauer - You were truly appreciated!

Bridge Crossing Essays

(Excerpts from the 2011 Bridge Crossing Essays)

Congratulations to the campers who decided to take the time to put their Foley experience into words by completing the essay based off of their past five years at Foley.

"Everything makes it a steady balance in my life from the swim test to friendship campfire, my camp days run to the rhythm of my beating heart. A living, breathing organism. New campers joining, while old campers filter out, then back as counselors. We work together as a unit of individuals." Analise Ober - age 16

"Camp Foley is a place I can't put into words. Camp Foley to me is a place of memories, friendships, and LOVE!" Taylor Kiffin - age 12

"We have hope. Foley has given me a hope for real relationships and has helped me see the true potential that I have." Miranda Lockner - age 15

"Camp means that you are going to see your family... they are not even friends once you get to this level, they are family. No matter what happened that day, when you lay down on your bunk you know you are in a place of love." Olivia Sieff - age 13

"To me camp is about going to the place that you love more than home... Sorry Mom and Dad, you can be fun, just not as awesome as Camp Foley counselors." Sam Munkeby - age 14

"All year I look forward to camp and hope that past friends are there...the canoe trip to Crow Wing River, [watching] fireworks off the dive tower, making many friends. Foley is pure fun." Danny Holmes - age 13

"Camp is a place I remember even when it grows cold out...camp is my oasis, my heaven on earth; something that lives in my heart and soul." Maddie Clark - age 13

"I'll never forget the Foley traditions – nothing like a yawning Chase Mueller waking up excited for soda bread Sunday, enjoying non-denom, sweeping the cabin or friendship campfire. I can't wait to bring what I've learned and experienced at camp this year back home." Chase Mueller - age 17

If 2012 will be your 5th summer or more, you are invited to become part of the Bridge Crossing group. Just write a essay of at least 500 words on "What Camp Foley Means to Me?"
Hint - do your essay this winter!

"Camp Foley, Camp Foley, Camp Foley! So outrageous words literally can't and will not ever explain the true love. With no words come more comparisons, like Dr. Pepper. There is no other sound, taste, or feelings like it." McKenna Bolger - age 16

"...out of pure determination, I volunteered to be skipper. As soon as I hit the water the wind whipped my hair, the boat sped up and had its own wake. My sailing instructor had given me the first compliment in days as we were heading in to the dock..." Clare Stoddart - age 13

"Camp to me means friends, memories and an escape from life at home. By being at Camp Foley for five years I have made a lot of friends that I have stayed friends with since my first year in Kadigomeg to this year in Mingo." Thomas Schroeder - age 15

"...a name that rings in my head; it's a song in my heart. It is a place where memories are made; friendships are made, never lost. Because, never failing, they leave footsteps in your heart." Courtney Geller - age 15

"The night before camp I can never get to sleep. I toss and turn for hours, just thinking of the fun that waits ahead... everyone was singing crazy songs that I didn't know and making intricate bracelets for one another." Natalie Cooper - age 13

"I fell in love with camp and felt it was necessary to be a returning camper. I quickly bonded with every girl in my cabin, and I can honestly say those were two of the best weeks of my life! I loved the activities I could participate in." Margee McDonnell - age 16

"The times we've spent together just chilling and learning stuff about each other we would have never known otherwise. These times are what makes Foley so unique and so special." Charlie Scheitlin - age 16

"Everytime I walk through that cabin so many memories pop into my head...I realize how much joy every camper and staff member has brought to my experience." Aaron Nelson - age 24

Thank you to everyone who works at Foley." Parent of a 4th year camper and an Octo from Minnesota

"Thank you for taking good care of them. They seemed happy and looked healthy. Thank you for checking up on [Camper] and for your daily update. I can think of 1000 things why I'm so grateful for Camp Foley." Mother of 1st and 5th year campers from Arizona

"We received the best letters ever this year from staff. I think it is amazing that they find the time to complete them with all their other obligations. It is greatly appreciated as a parent." Parents of 5th, 4th and 5th year campers from Arizona

"Both of my kids came home very bonded with their cabin mates and with endless stories of having fun. The wonderful counselors make the experience even better. Camp provided them both with a chance to really belong to a group that was caring and supportive outside of their daily lives." Mother of 2nd year campers from Minnesota

2011 Scholarship Donors

Camp Foley would like to extend a big THANK YOU to everyone who supports this program through their generous contributions.

So far for 2011, the Camp Foley scholarship program has received donations totaling $5503.85. Due to the slow economy, we had more inquires for camper scholarships than in past years, and were, fortunately, able to offer full and partial scholarships to 28 deserving applicants. Our scholarship campers add diversity to our camp community, generally coming from inner city and rural settings. Some of them are wards of the state, being raised by a grandparent, from low income families struggling to make ends meet, or from needy families seeking opportunities to provide their kids with positive alternatives to inner city gangs, drugs, rural isolation and/or other challenges.

Thank you all for truly making a difference in the lives of Camp Foley's scholarship campers!

Here is what a couple of the scholarship recipients and their families had to say about their 2011 Foley experience:

"I know for 2 weeks out of the summer my son is with people who care about kids and have a passion for what they do. It's important to have dedicated, compassionate people on staff to make memories for our kids. Thank you so much for allowing [my son] to join the Foley family. I am forever grateful for the generosity of Camp Foley!"

Parent of a 3rd year scholarship camper

"Thank you for letting me go to camp this past summer. I really had a lot of fun. I especially liked learning how to fish and meeting new people...Living in a cabin with my counselors and cabin mates was a great experience and I hope I can do it again next summer. Although I felt homesick while at camp, everyone was very helpful in making me not feel so bad about missing my family."

2011 Awards

Here we take a quick recap on some of the awards presented to our campers during the summer of 2011.

Birchbark Awards

The Birchbark Awards are awarded to campers who complete at least half of the requirements for the Silver or Gold Paddle Awards and who have followed Foley's Code of Living. For 2011, we would like to recognize Diego Scala, Eugenio Vallarreal, Claire Hickey and Lilly McCarty for putting forth the effort to complete the requirements for the Silver Birchbark Award. Congrats!

Diego Scala      Eugenio Vallarreal      Claire Hickey      Lilly McCarty

Hall of Fame

Besides our traditional activity awards and Anchor awards that were distributed to deserving campers, the Hall of Fame is another important achievement. To achieve this recognition, a person needs to spend 10 summers at Foley as a camper and/or counselor or combination of the two. Hall of Fame prospects also have to complete the Bridge Crossing 5 year essay entitled "What Camp Foley Means to Me" and complete a biography sheet describing their years at Foley.

New Things Around Foley in 2011

Have a ball in the new Rec Center!

We saw the addition of a brand new Recreation Center at Foley this summer. The Rec Center houses various games including foosball, air hockey, ping pong and even a full size pool table! An audio system with iPod connectivity was also installed in the Rec Center with both indoor and outdoor speakers. The Rec Center was an absolute hit with campers this summer!

The Wabi gets a face lift!

2011 saw the Wabi building being put to great use thanks to a brand new multi-purpose foam-based floor. Classes such as Drama, Yoga and Dance took full advantage of this, and were a great success as this photo shows! As well as the floor, the Wabi saw the addition of a full sound and lighting system including two 50" plasma TV's. Foley dances and slide-shows will never be the same again!

Highly strung Guitar class!

This summer brought music to the ears of many campers with our brand new guitar class. It proved to be rather popular with many campers signing up again and again. Music was made indoors and outdoors. Check out these action shots...

Make something cool in Shop class!

Foley's shop class saw a major renovation this year, opening it's doors to a brand new kid-friendly workshop. Campers now have the opportunity to build projects and receive training in using real power tools. 2011's shop projects included building personal Derby cars from scratch, creating activity signs for various locations around camp, and a group project to create full size adirondack chairs.

Crafts has a new home!

Crafts has taken on a new lease of life now that it has a brand new home at Foley! The new crafts cabin is situated to the east of Foley Green and now boasts a permanent and dedicated home, much to the delight of our creative minded campers. For the first time ever at Foley, campers are able to sit around a table big enough for the entire class to work together on large projects, or individually on personal creations. As these pictures show, 2011 projects included 'Duct Tape Crations', 'Pop Can Animals' and 'Expressive Art' to name a few!

Make a splash on the mat!

A brand new water mat added even more fun at the Swim Dock this summer - and kids couldn't get enough of it! This heavy duty mat is plenty big enough for up to 12 campers, and paired with the log, proved to be one of the hottest places to be seen at camp this summer. Our campers loved to create games of their own to play on the mat, and the staff loved to join in too! Take a look at this wet 'n' wild photo...

Alums...Keep us up to date!

We're working hard to keep our alumni database up to date so we can ensure that all our efforts to keep you in the loop on everything Foley, gets to the right people. However, people move, change email addresses and change phone numbers. This makes our job tough! Thankfully Foley has made it easy for our Alumni to keep their contact information up-to-date with their 'Alumni Update Form' available online!

If you have changed any of your contact information recently, please let us know by filling out this form at: <http://tinyurl.com/alumupdateform> and help Us to help You stay in the loop!

Food Favorites

What's Your Favorite Food at Camp Foley?

By Lauren Benson

Camp has lots of things involved, but one thing people remember is the food. I talked to people around camp to see what food they remember the most.

Total votes: 15

Soda Bread: 7

Spaghetti: 1

Mini Doughnuts: 1

French Toast: 4

Grilled Cheese: 2

Salad Bar: 0

Jell-O: 0

I randomly picked seven food items everyone could pick from. No one chose the Jell-O or salad bar, but it depends on how many people you ask, and who you ask. (I had to finish this in two days, so I couldn't get many people to take the poll.)

Mini Doughnuts and spaghetti only received one vote each. Grilled cheese received two, and French Toast four. Soda bread had seven, so the obvious winner is SODA BREAD!! (If you haven't tried Soda bread yet, you'll get to soon!)

Here are some questions that I asked campers and staff at Foley. I chose the answers I liked the best to put in the newspaper.

Why do you like the food that you chose?

Katie: "I like the soda bread because Camp Foley is the only place that can make it right." Counselor, Sacajawea.

Caylin: "I love the French Toast because the syrup is really sweet!" 10, Mic Mac.

Do you dislike any foods here at camp?

Caroline: "I dislike the corn because I think it's greasy." 9, Sacajawea.

Rachel: "I love all the foods here at camp. Even the tater tot hot dish. My mom never makes it at home, so this is the only place that I can have it." counselor, Ishtakaba.

Could Camp Foley improve any food to make it better?

Sarah: "Camp Foley should provide more fruit choices." counselor, Sacajawea.

Avery: "I think Camp Foley could improve their Jell-O." 9, Mic Mac.

If you could, what food would you make and serve here?

Kayleigh: "I would make chili cheese dogs. They're my favorite!" 13, Matoaka.

Anna: "I would serve ice cream sundaes!" 8, Sacajawea

The Mysteries of Staff Week

By Rosie McCarty

Ever wonder how the counselors seem to know everything that's going on? Do they live here all year long? Do they arrive when the campers arrive? It seems to be a mystery that has been plaguing the Camp Foley campers for years. The answer to all these unanswered questions is Staff Week! Or as Jessie Garretson has renamed it, "Staff Strong". Garretson believes that, "Staff week didn't fully capture the right adjective of Foley staff...we are not weak, we are strong!" During Staff Strong, or the ten days before first session, counselors learn the ins and outs of Foley from cabin living, to campfire songs, to safety, to traditions, to activities. It consists of countless seminars, a variety of mock activity classes, and a general preparation for the arrival of campers. Some counselors are returning campers, others are brand new to Foley; regardless, everyone had something new to learn over the week. Brendan Berg, who is at Foley for the first time, says that his favorite part of Staff Strong was, "the wonderful, enthusiastic atmosphere I walked into. Everyone was willing to say hi and introduce themselves." Counselors have been counting down the days until the campers come, and it is finally here! They are all very excited to put Staff Strong behind them and enter into life with campers.

Music Holla!

by Brendan Berg

Oh can you feel that? Why it's the warm summer wind blowing on your face. There is a slight twang hither and thither undulating throughout the summer sounds. Here at Foley we have a new guitar studio. We have a brand new set of 8 Rogue guitars to strum your heart out on. Ricky a new staff member from England, is teaching guitar lessons and basic chords. For those of you who have always wanted to learn how to be the next Eric Clapton this is for you.

Is Sailing a Sport?

by Kayleigh Baranaba

Here at Foley Sailing is a popular activity. But is it really a sport? Some people think it is and others think differently. I for one think it is not. This argument started when I was talking with the sailing instructor Austin. He believes that is it. I personally view it as something to do in your free time or as just an activity. So I decided to take a poll on a couple of people to see what people were thinking about it.

Here are some quotes about sailing.....

Joey: It's not a sport because it's not on TV

Maddie/Sophie J: You can have races

Aaron: NO

Kayleigh: It's just an activity

Jessie: Because they don't wear Jerseys or Helmets

Alli: It's in the Olympics

Lauren: Yes I do

Ricky: Why yes of course

There you have it 8 people think it is and 6 people don't. So based on this it is a sport. But I still think its not.

Sports Section

By Kaleigh Barnaba

Camp Foley is one of the funniest places to go during the summer. There is so much to do. You can play Tennis, Paintball, Riflery, Rock Climbing, Fishing, Diving, Yoga, and more!

There are also so fun sports to do like Tennis, Basketball, and Soccer. In the article I will explain all the sports that you can do here.

Tennis

Tennis is a really fun sport to try here at Foley. You can find it over by the Rock Climbing wall. Tennis is a game that is played with a racket and a tennis ball. The point of the tennis game is to try to get your ball over the net and let it bounce more than two times in your opponent's area. You can play a singles or a doubles match. It's a really fun sport to try and I would highly recommend it!

Soccer

Soccer is new here at Foley. Soccer is game that is played by two teams with at least eleven people on each team. The object of the games is to try to kick the soccer ball through the other teams goals. If you do this you are awarded one point.

Basketball

Basketball is one of my favorite sports. The point of Basketball is to try to get the basketball through the other teams hoop. If you get fit through you and your team are awarded two points or if you make it for the three-point arc you get three points. But be careful because in Basketball you can get fouls like tripping another player or double dribbling which is when you take more than one step with the ball.

Lacrosse

Lacrosse is a very intense game. There is a lot of contact in this game. But both boys and girls can play this game. For the boys there is a lot of contact but for the girls there is none. The game is played by when you have a ball and you play with a special kind of stick that has a thing called a cradle with the ball is kept. So the player throws the ball with the stick and the other player tries to catch it with his/her stick and run with it and get it in the goal. If you do this you get one point.

I hope reading this article you will try some of the sports here at Foley! Thanks for reading.

Rumors

By Joesph Pulley

Ricky

Did Ricky steal the Birthday song and does he actually play the guitar or does it play by itself?

Kelsey and Ally

Are they sneaking into camp just to have fun cause they don't instruct anything im just asking questions?

Taylor C

Why is she so small is she not eating her vegetables or does she eats sweets all the time?

Cole

Does he actually have twins or is he sneaking out of camp to be a pirate and be in the mafia?

Jack

Is Jacks ascent fake how do we know that Jack was not just born in America his parents are the ones from London?

Expose: What Really is in the Wheelhouse?

By Symi Byrd
Staff Writer

Yesterday I was let into the ultra exclusive staff-only Wheel House. I was totally amazed by what I saw! There was a $900 marble floor, and the same with gold edging for the walls. There were 90- inch plasma flat-screen TV's, a built-in hot tub, a furniture set of black leather, well basically everything one could ever want. Me? I wish that I saw my face. My thoughts are: Why do we campers have old cabins with Native American tribe names, instead of chic brand names? And why we are with out A/ C. On cold nights we freeze our butts off and on hot, humid nights we almost die of heatstroke while they are living it up with expensive, designer furniture, and blasting cold air? Id really like to know!

Why Bandanas?

The recent trend of bandanas revealed

By Paige Ernst

Everyone is wearing bandanas! But why? Is it a fashion trend or a health concern? Most people say it's a health concern because of lice and maybe even hair gel! We don't know. Just kidding! We do its because of health concern of the lice outbreak hope I answered any of your questions.

EDITORS NOTE: This story was written before the recent lice outbreak- see the Foley Times really is on the pulse.

How Do I Get This Boiling Hot Bowl of Tomato Soup Across Camp?

By Cole Haugen
Staff Writer

OI have this steaming hot bowl of tomato soup that I made for you camperinos, the only problem is I need to get it across camp in a hurry. I am wondering what the best method is to get it across camp without any issues. There are a few obstacles that I will need to overcome like hills, sand patches, and potholes but I am clever and I will find the most efficient way to get this incredible hot giant bowl of tomato soup across camp without any problems and while looking good at the same time.

I have an old pair of roller skates which I think I will wear to make traveling more efficient. The only problem is that I am not very stable on the roller skates so it might be a little sketchy. Now that I have a faster way to travel I want to look good as well, so I will wear Bernardo's one-piece for a little pizzazz. I think the one-piece will look good but since it is so hot out I will have to tie it around my waist so

I don't overheat. I will just wear my tank top for a shirt the only issue is it is stained but not worry I will just tie it in a knot in the front so you can't see the stain and it will help me work on my farmer's tan.

I want to be safe while I am transferring the piping hot bowl of tomato soup across camp so I will wear a brightly colored helmet to protect my head and make me visible from a distance. I also have a pinwheel that I can attach to the top of the helmet to help me tell which way the wind is blowing.

There shouldn't be any issues I just have to head down Father Foley Drive and down the big hill which will be great because I will gain a lot of momentum and be traveling at a high rate of speed. Next I just have to make a drastic 90 degree turn to get into camp. This shouldn't be a problem seeing as there is a lot of loose gravel that should slow me down a bit. Next I just have to cruise through a large group of campers on the wet pavement and I am home free! I am a little worried about being able to balance but I will just lean back to offset the weight of the scolding hot giant bowl of tomato soup that I am carrying.

I wish I had time to shave before delivering this very hot giant tomato soup across camp so I will wear a brightly colored helmet to protect my head and make me visible from a distance. I also have a pinwheel that I can attach to the top of the helmet to help me tell which way the wind is blowing.

There shouldn't be any issues I just have to head down Father Foley Drive and down the big hill which will be great because I will gain a lot of momentum and be traveling at a high rate of speed. I wish I had time to shave before delivering this very hot giant bowl of tomato soup to camp on my poorly crafted roller skates. I haven't shaved for days and my hair is a mess but since I am dressed so nicely I don't think anyone will notice. I think I will wear floaties on my arms just in case I overshoot the Dining Hall and end up in the lake. Now that I have a plan I think I will be able to execute this idea with no problems. I can't see any issues that could arise along the steep, windy, rocky, wet, and heavily trafficked road. Now I just need to put on my roller skates and various apparel and I will be getting this boiling hot giant bowl of tomato soup over to the dining hall in no time. I don't see how any problems could arise along the way.

Biking Mound or Giant Gopher?

By Susie Holt, Staff Writer

Dose one know what that big mound by the Foley fun center is? Well my hypothesis is Giant Gopher!!!!

Last night I snuck out of my cabin (the new camper's arrival) and I saw a giant gopher come out of the mound. It was very hugegantic! It ate a tree! Omg that must be why the girl's side is missing a tree! WOW! How exciting! We've discovered the mysterious missing tree! The gopher ate it! It must be Hungary.

Quotes on the gopher

Sealant pomezz: it ate all 9 of my fingers! Only one is still there!

Justin pozzor: he/she ate my hair that's why it's so short!

Huston jimberthake: it eats all of my pudding! so mad!

Well that's all for the quotes but heres more facts .

``The monstrous sized gopher eats what ever it can. We don't know the gender yet. It only comes out at night because it doesn't like to be spotted. So if you see this "monster" send us a pic. Youll get a canteen . it has to be reall!!!!!!!!!!!!

By Connor Bryd

Have you heard of the haunted bathroom on the boy's side? Well, the reason it's haunted is because an old man was going to the bathroom and died in the bathroom. People claim they saw the man's ghost. I interviewed the man's ghost and he said, "All I want is to be left alone, so please stop trying to catch me!" This concludes the story of the man's ghost.

Is There A Mafia At Foley?

by Paige Mullin

We've all played the game mafia before but the question is was there a mafia at Foley?

I've done some serious research and its true there was a mafia at Foley .but not a normal mafia. He or she was doing weird stuff like putting rocks in bad spot so people tripped. Here are some of my personal favorites. Once there was a camper named Claire

She was unfortunate and grabbed the wrong bag of Scooby snacks.

Claire was going to save them for the morning .she went to bed. In the middle of the night The Scooby snacks broke out of their bags and attacked Claire.

There also was once a boy named Phill. He loved gummy bears. He brought 5 huge Gummy bears to camp. He displayed them in the woods. A girl named sara was taking

A midnight stroll in the woods. All of a sudden gummy bears were attacking her. the Gummy bears didn't now any better they thought she was food. Phill found her in the Morning with no idea how she got there. Phill never ever brought gummy bears to Camp again.

If you don't want any of this ridiculous stuff to happen to you. always do the Fowling.

Letter from the editor

Dear Readers, I just wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for a wonderful summer here at Foley. As you are probably aware, this was the inaugural summer for the Foley Times and we never would have enjoyed the success we've had without all of you, our loyal readers. Thank you for taking time out of your days to pick up an issue and to read about the latest happenings at Foley. We've had quite the summer—from that first mock class during Staff Strong to the current expose on if Mexican Lasagna is truly Mexican -We've covered it all. I want to thank all of the staff writers, many who devoted their own personal free swims and morning funs to the cause of journalism, asking the hard hitting questions and risking their lives to get the news as it broke for all of you. I especially want to thank the staff staff writers, Cole, Leslie, Kai, to name a few, who spent late nights in the Wheelhouse working to meet deadlines. And I of course, want to thank all the other staff who also gave me their undying support- those who bandaged my battle wounds from the journalism room (see page 3), gave me aspirin when the deadline headaches approached, and even risked deportation to illegally put indesign on my computer- thank you from the bottom of my arteries. I don't know what the future holds for the Foley Times, or for the future of print journalism for that matter, but what I do know is that that we've made history this summer and had a lot of fun in the process. It's been a good run. Thank you Foley.

Harry Potter Banquet

Why it's better than the books

By Kai Peterson
Staff Writer

The Harry Potter Banquet at Camp Foley on August 8 was quite a spectacle. Filled with Quidditch matches, house-bonding activities, and a full-blown horcrux hunt, the Harry Potter Banquet boldly went where no banquet had gone before. The characters – convincing. The plotline – tense. While the banquet took some liberties with the story, the alterations were for the better. The presence of Dumbledore and Mad-Eye Moody made a real impact on the positive flow of the day. The carefully crafted horcruxes were a brilliant touch, and the Potter Pals skits were second-tone.

We must, however, give the books their due credit. They were groundbreaking and defined an entire generation. The banquet was unable to compete with the character development and incredible detail that the books maintained throughout.

We conclude that the Harry Potter banquet was no match for the books. In our eyes, however, the banquet far surpassed the movies and will stand the test of time as the most epic banquet Camp Foley

Counselor's Corner contd..

Letter to the editor

Letter to the Editor –
 August 6, 2011 I am writing concerning the entire Foley Times publication of the 2011 summer season. May I just commend you, Jessie Garretson, on producing such a fine piece of journalism for all of the camp community to enjoy. All of the campers that have contributed should also be proud of making Foley history with their writing. Anything that memorializes the questions we ponder and moments we treasure as campers and staff is something to be valued. I am so excited to have been a part of its success this year and I hope that it continues for generations to come. On a more serious note, I leave you all with these parting words of advice: hold on to every memory you can. There will never be enough time for camp, enough moments to cherish with your friends, and enough days to be celebrate being exactly who you are in exactly the right place. Hold on to the love that keeps us all together, and remember that in your heart it can always be the eternal summer.

The dangers of Journalism

By Jessie Garretson
 Editor in Chief

I don't usually break my post as editor in chief of this fine publication to write stories, however I feel as if this particular topic merits me breaking the hierarchy of the publishing world. I want to tell you all about the dangers of journalism. Here at Foley, you may be under the impression that activities like paintball, waterskiing, and climbing present the most dangers to the physical safety of the participants...and that activities like drama, guitar, and yes, journalism would be much safer options. If this is what you believe, I am sorry but your misinformed and put more bluntly, just pure wrong. I firmly believe that journalism is the most dangerous activity here at Camp Foley. I as the journalism instructor have personally had to deal with these dangers firsthand all summer and I have the scars to prove it. Before you even enter the journalism room the dangers are ever present, first there is the drop-off leading to the door of the room, if you are at all distracted walking down the path it is extremely easy to fall to your death. Additionally, the lock on the door has a metal cover over it that is placed directly at forehead level, another danger indeed. Let me elaborate... one day I was skipping happily into teach my class and soon found the lock cover digging into my left eye and forehead. Blood was dripping from my forehead all day, and for weeks I had to walk around looking like Harry Potter with a deep scar in my forehead. Inside the room is not much better, there is a medieval lantern that conveniently hangs directly at head level so when you stand up from the computers in a rush of a publishing deadline, your skulls lands directly on the glass. Additionally, there is fan with no cover serves to cool the room down but also will happily slice you into a million bits with its blades if you get too close. You may say, "Jessie that's easy to avoid- just stay far away from the fan" well, yes easy enough, when you don't have a thick stream of blood running from your forehead to eyeballs and your concussed from an earlier "interaction" with the light. So readers, these are just a few of the prices I, and all the staff writers of the Foley Times, have paid to bring you un-biased, cutting edge news from the shores of Whitefish

Calla Cat

By Marjorie Newsome, Staff Writer

Calla Cat was an ordinary cat. She had an owner and a home and lived an ordinary life. Calla lives by a lake where wild cats live. One day she saw some of the wild cats playing by the pine trees near the woods. She went over and asked "can I play with you?" but one of them just said "no we don't like spoiled cats." Calla was heart broken, she wasn't spoiled, she even hunted for her own food. Then, once the other cats had gone, one of the cats came up and said "don't mind them, they are just jealous that you have an easy life."

The next day:

The cat that was nice to Calla (his name is blue ear) came back and played with Calla. Eventually, more cats joined in and now Calla is happy, and I hope it stays similar to that at Camp Foley.

The Curse of the Stuffed Animals

Once along time ago at Foley, there was a girl named Elizabeth who brought her stuffed animal elephant to Camp. Her first night she duct taped (yes duct taped) the elephant to the wall. The next morning the elephant was gone..... and all that was left was a tiny ball of used duct tape, her duct tape! Elizabeth thought this was a prank but where was her elephant? Then Catherine tried the same thing with her tiger, and the same thing happened, pretty soon everyone's stuffed animal was gone! The camp was very suspicious. Then one child found a book called "The Cursed Stuffed Animals". It said the curse was found when stuffed animals were alive one animal walked across an Indian burial mound, all the animals froze, and Foley was made. So now every night your animals come to life, and are evil. It also said that all of the animals met in the old abandoned little shed. So the campers all went to the old abandoned little shed. They found the animals with red beady eyes... but Catherine's tiger was an actual tiger! And all the other animals where the actual animal as well! The child that found the book named Ernie, found the cure.... "The rare blue wild berries" the book said. So the campers searched and searched but only found five all week! But after three months they finally found enough berries. They set the trap and the bait was gone by morning then they found their animals. The animals left the curse behind, leaving everyone happy at camp. But many years later in the morning a girl and everyone at camp had lost their animal..... and they looked all over camp until they went to the swim dock and went to the boating area and searched it the boats then Found their animals all chained to the boat.....

The story of the Whitefish Lake Monster

By Martin Diek
Staff Writer

Today we are going to tell you the scary story of the whitefish lake monster.

It all began with a man named Scully who was out in Whitefish Lake fishing in his rowboat to feed his family who was dying of hunger. One day, he threw a net when all of a sudden something started to pull him into the water! The thing that was pulling him was much stronger than him so he let go of his only

net. After that incident, he began to search all of Whitefish Lake with his old friend, his harpoon. Many weeks passed and he began to lose all hope. He decided to go back to his wife. When he was halfway there, something made a hole in his rowboat and it started sinking. Unfortunately, Scully died trying to kill that sea monster, but we still have proof that Scully existed. His rowboat is proof that he existed. Scientists believe that Scully's House is located under Camp Foley. Scully's boat can be seen in snorkeling class.

Has Rehan been dangerous?

By Erin Long
Staff Writer

We have found Rehan filling up water balloons to throw at campers. Or are they really water balloons? On Thursday July 7, we found Rehan filling up poison (water) balloons.

She has been saying "I am going to throw them at campers." We saw her sneaking off with the bucket of balloons, then saw her filling them up with a green liquid at the boy's drinking fountain. Soon she will be throwing them at campers.

BEWARE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Leslie attacked by Octopus

The shocking trend of Lake Monster encounters continues

By Erin Long
Staff Writer

One day on the lake counselor Mary Claire was driving the ski boat for counselor Leslie. They were just having some counselor time.

When Leslie got up on the skis a giant octopus took her underwater. Then out of nowhere Leslie landed on the boat and they drove back safely. But the giant octopus has not been spotted since....but it might be soon, careful skiers!

Friendship bracelets

A look at the fashion trend that has taken Foley by storm

By Claire Hickey
Staff Writer

One big thing at camp is friendship bracelets. Everyone here at Camp Foley wants the coolest friendship bracelets. Two people that make awesome friendship bracelets are Vanna, the octo, and Leslie, the counselor. Vanna and Leslie make these cool bracelets that are Xs then diamonds. These bracelets, if made fast, take three and a half hours!

It seems that everyone here at Foley makes bracelets, campers and counselors. One person that never makes bracelets is Jessie Garretson. Jessie as a camper and a counselor has only made six friendship bracelets! Jessie says that she doesn't make bracelets for lack of skill and time. But we all know that Jessie is more than capable to make bracelets, she just doesn't want to.

It just goes to show that everyone, young and old, fat and thin, smart and dumb, can make friendship bracelets!

The best of the best: Cabin of the week

By Claire Hickey
Staff Writer

In this edition of the Foley times we have a "Cabin Of The Week" section. I went around many activities asking the campers and counselors what their opinion of the cabin of the week was. They could vote for any cabin except theirs. Each camper/counselor had to vote for a boy's cabin and a girl's cabin. There are a total of twenty-one votes.

On the girls side in 8th place was a three-way tie between Hiawatha, Matoka, and Sacajawea with one vote each. In 5th place with two votes each are Tekawitha and Pocahontas. In 3rd place with three votes is Ishtakaba. Second place with four votes is Menominee. And in 1st place with a total of seven votes is MicMac.

On the boys side in 8th place is Wah-tassa and Shingwako with zero votes. In 6th place there is a four-way tie, with three votes each, are Mandan, Kewaskum, Seneca, and Ojibway. In 2nd place with four votes is Mingo. And in 1st place is Kadigomeg with five votes.

So in the end, MicMac and Kadigomeg came out to be the Cabins Of The Week. Even though MicMac and Kadigomeg were voted the best, every cabin in special in their own way!

A look into Foley's biggest mysteries, as we reveal what Camp has been keeping hidden from campers for years

The truth behind the East Washo

By Martin Diek
Staff Writer

To all the girls reading the Foley Times: The east washo is a bathroom located at the boy's side at the far right. Well let's begin...

Chris was going to turn the water on. He entered and heard a scraping sound, when all of a sudden the roof fell down and broke the water pipes! The east washo became flooded, but fortunately Chris escaped just in time and didn't get hurt. We can't see the broken roof because they fixed it in staff week.

The cage story

By Diego Scala
Staff Writer

Have you seen the cage near the Wheel House and near the climbing wall. Haven't you asked yourself what was it for. Well, I WILL TELL YOU THE STORY BEHIND IT! Back in the day, when Foley owned a Gorilla! They kept that gorilla in that same cage.

One rainy day, the gorilla got really angry because he got scared of lightning. He ripped the cage open and escaped into some other part of Foley territory. Camp Foley searched around for years and years, and one sad day the gorilla appeared and captured one of the camper's. We are still looking for the gorilla, to one day put him back in that cage. For now... BEWARE! You don't want to be the next victim...

What is Camp's favorite activity?

By Diego Scala

Apparently Water-skiing is the campers favorite activity. If you haven't done Water-skiing, it is recommended that you should by many campers. Keep listening to the Foley Times!

What it means to be a cabin twin

By Diego Scala
Staff Writer

I have been looking around the camp and I have noticed something pretty interesting. I have found out that some cabins have twins. These "twins" have to do with the activities each cabin does. So, there are some Up's and Down's to having a twin cabin. If you are trying to sleep and they are loud, it's irritating, but you also get to meet new people.

"Is it good or bad to have a twin cabin?" Here are some people who answered the question.

Sometimes it's good because you play with the other cabin

The Counselor's Take

Confessions of a Wheelhouse Rat

A weekly column about the life and times of the Foley Staff by Staff Writer Leslie Strobel. Have you ever wondered what the hot topics of discussion are of your counselors? Well, throughout my weeks at camp I have decided to write a little something about the topics we discuss while chilling in the hot tub eating all the candy we found you hiding.

There are many things that are important to the staff, but one of the most important is how we decide to dress ourselves as we brainstorm ideas on how to get our stubborn campers out of their beds. Counselors are like Goodwill supermodels, so choosing wisely is very important.

Some counselors, such as Aaron or Christina, have certain staples in their wardrobe that get them noticed from far away. This is why a backwards Tina hat is so precious – because a camper knows that she loves it so much that wearing it is such an hour.

Also important is the correct amount of matching. As counselors, we are aware that looking fly is a serious job, but also know that we are here to make ourselves look cooler than we are in our real lives.

There needs to be a balance of neon, plaid, Americana, and flannel in order for a staff wardrobe to truly be complete. Also important is t-shirts and crew neck sweatshirts that advertise completely random things, so we can try to convince young impressionable campers these things are super awesome. I mean, if you guys fell for silly bands, we can really convince you to like just about anything.

Without us, you would be missing Old Navy sandals with backstraps, obnoxiously colored sunglasses, spandex, nametags, the staff polo, and Onesies from your everyday life. So next time you are harassing your counselor for their canteen, remember that they have graced your presence with a seriously sweet look you can bring home to your friends and pass off as your own.

Harry Potter Banquet

Why it's better than the books

By Kai Peterson
Staff Writer

The Harry Potter Banquet at Camp Foley on July 9 was quite a spectacle. Filled with Quidditch matches, house-bonding activities, and a full-blown horcrux hunt, the Harry Potter Banquet boldly went where no banquet had gone before. The characters – convincing. The plotline – tense. While the banquet took some liberties with the story, the alterations were for the better. The presence of Dumbledore and Mad-Eye Moody made a real impact on the positive flow of the day.

The carefully crafted horcruxes were a brilliant touch, and the Potter Pals skits were second-tone.

We must, however, give the books their due credit. They were groundbreaking and defined an entire generation. The banquet was unable to compete with the character development and incredible detail that the books maintained throughout.

We conclude that the Harry Potter banquet was no match for the books. In our eyes, however, the banquet far surpassed the movies and will stand the test of time as the most epic banquet Camp Foley has ever seen.

All Around the World

By Alexis Hodeman

Staff Writer

Let most of us campers live in Minnesota and some campers come from other states such as Iowa, South and North Dakota, Illinois, California, Florida and other places in the U.S.A. For people coming from Florida or California, Camp is really different from back home...but did you know that kids come all the way across the world to have fun at Camp Foley? Imagine how different Camp is for people from across the world! I know what most of you are thinking. Yes. Camp Foley really is that famous. One camper, Javier Palau(13), came from San Luis Potosi, Mexico along with his sister, Ceci(10), both for four weeks. You might wonder how kids find out about camp in Mexico, so when I asked Javier, he stated that it was a family tradition of his. Like our other international campers, Javier and Ceci flew here. Javier also said that the weather here is very different, that his home is like a desert, and Minnesota is cold and has lot's of lakes. Javier's favorite activities are fencing and drama! Besides Mexico, campers come from other places like England, Thailand, France, and Italy. You can check out the flags in the Dining Hall, where each flag represents where our campers have come from! New this year camper's names are right by the flags they came from! Camp Foley's international campers are just like the one's from the U.S..... we're all just here to have fun!

Maisie... The Junior Camper

By Grace Costello

Staff Writer

Hi I am Grace Costello from Ishtakaba and here is an article about our junior camper Maisie. Masie has been at camp since last summer and every one since then has fallen in love with her.

Maisie is 1 and she was born in October 23rd 2010 and she is a very cute talkative little girl. Maisie LOVES to play with the water, watch movies, and of course play with us campers. As you can see Maisie has changed a lot from last summer. She can walk and talk. She now has no more bottles and no more baby food

Most of us campers are wondering do Nike and Maisie get along? I asked Kate myself. Maisie and Nike get along and Maisie likes the puppy but, Nike is very hyper and full of energy and Kate does not want Maisie to get hurt. Maybe when she gets a little bit older they will be able to play more often. Well I hope you enjoyed my article and loved my facts about Maisie. Have a nice day at Camp Foley and enjoy the lake

WHAT IS RIDING LIKE?

BY: GRACE COSTELLO

HI I'M GRACE COSTELLO AND TODAY I AM GOING TO TALK ABOUT WHAT IS RIDING LIKE. HERE AT CAMP FOLEY MOST PEOPLE WHO DON'T RIDE HORSES DON'T KNOW WHAT IT'S LIKE. SO I AM GOING TO TELL YOU ☺ MEREDITH COSTELLO, A GIRL FROM ISHTAKABA SAYS "RIDING IS COOL BECAUSE YOU ARE IN CONTROL OF YOUR OWN HORSE." EMMA RYAN ALSO IN ISHTAKABA SAYS "ITS FUN BECAUSE YOU CAN GO FAST OR SLOW." SOME OF THE RIDERS FAVORITE THINGS TO DO WHEN THERE RIDING IS... GOING ON REALLY COOL TRAIL RIDES, DO PATTERNS WITH CONES, AND TROT. TROTTERING IS GOING IN A FAST JOG AND MOST PEOPLE THINK ITS REALLY FUN! THERE ARE MANY GOOD AND FRIENDLY HORSES AT THE BARN AND HERE ARE SOME OF THERE NAMES- JACOB, DALLAS, AND MISTY. PLUS THE BEST PART ABOUT RIDING MOST OF YOU SAY IS THE BIG TRAIL RIDE AT THE END OF RIDING LESSONS. ON THIS TRAIL RIDE YOU GET TO HAVE LOTS OF FUN AND GO UP AND DOWN HILLS. WHY IS THERE
NOT MORE SOCCER
PERIODS?

BY DECLAN FRIES

HI I'M DECLAN FRIES REPORTER OF
THE FOLEY TIMES.

TODAY I'M HERE TO TALK ABOUT
WHY THERE'S NOT MORE SOCCER
PERIODS AT CAMP FOLEY.

I ASKED BERNS & SEAN THE OTHER
DAY WHY IS THERE NOT MORE THEN
ONE SOCCER PERIOD?

"THIS IS WHAT THEY TOLD ME.

THIS IS BECAUSE THERE IS 11 PLAY-ERS ON EACH TEAM IN A NORMAL
SOCCER GAME AND THERE ARE 35
CAMPERS DOING SOCCER AS THERE
FIFTH PERIOD ACTIVITY."

"SO IT'S CLOSER TO 11 PLAYERS ON EACH TEAM WHEN THERE'S 35 IN ONE PERIOD."

THAT'S ALL I HAVE TO SAY ABOUT
SOCCER.

THAT WAS FOLEY TIMES REPORTER
DECLAN FRIES
FROM KEWASKUM.

BIGGER GAGA PITS ARE WANTED!!!

BY JAKE RYAN

HI THERE I'M

JAKE RYAN TODAY I'M HERE TO TALK ABOUT WHY
THE GAGA PITS ARE TINY AND SHOULD BE A BIT
BIGGER. SOME PEOPLE SAID "THERE SHOULD BE MORE AND BIGGER GAGA BALL PITS PEOPLE A LOT
IN EACH PIT." SOMETIMES I THINK THERE ARE TOO
MANY PLAYERS. I WANT EVERY PLAYER TO GET A TURN TO HAVE THE BALL AND THE ONLY WAY TO DO THAT IS TO HAVE BIGGER PITT!!!

SODA BREAD CRAZE

BY SYMI BYRD

WHAT DOES ALMOST EVERYBODY AT CAMP
LOVE? SODA BREAD OF COURSE! ITS TEXTURE
IS HEARTWARMING, MAKING YOU FEEL LIKE
YOU'RE AT HOME. THE OUTSIDE IS NICE AND CRISPY, WHILE THE INSIDE IS WARM AND FLUFFY.
VERY FEW PEOPLE CAN GET THE CAMP'S SODA
BREAD RECIPE RIGHT. THE RECIPE IS ON THE CAMP WEBSITE, SO YOU CAN TRY TO MAKE THE DELISH RECIPE FOR YOURSELF. YOU'LL BE LUCKY
IF YOU GET THE RECIPE RIGHT! SOME PEOPLE GO
FOR RECORDS ON THE AMOUNT OF SODA BREAD
THEY EAT. MAYBE YOU COULD HOLD THE TOP
RECORD! SO EAT UP!

FOLEY GONE GAGA?

BY SYMI BYRD

FOLEY GONE GAGA?! WHAT IN THE WORLD
DOES THAT MEAN?! WELL GAGA BALL DUH! GAGA
BALL CAME TO CAMP FOLEY IN SUMMER OF 2010
(LAST YEAR) AND EVERYBODY LOVES IT! THE
MAIN OBJECTIVE IS TO GET OTHER CAMPERS OUT
OF THE AREA BY HITTING THEIR FEET/ LEGS. BUT BEWARE. YOU DON'T WANT TO GET OUT YOUR-SELF! THERE ARE SOME CAMPERS SAYING THAT THE GAGA BALL AREA SHOULD BE BIGGER THAN
IT IS NOW. SHOULD IT? SOME OF THE GAMES GET REALLY BIG! BUT WILL IT STILL BE POPULAR IN TWENTY YEARS? MAYBE IT IS TOO ADDICTIVE?
CAMPERS WILL PLAY IT WHENEVER THEY HAVE A
CHANCE TO, BUT SOMETIMES THEY SHOULD SIT ON THE BENCHES, OR AT AN ACTIVITY. IT MIGHT NOT SURVIVE IN FOLEY HISTORY. THIS IS ANNIE
EPSTEIN'S VIEW OF THINGS:
ME: ANNIE DO YOU LIKE GAGA BALL? IF YOU
DO, DO YOU THINK IT WILL LAST FOR TWENTY YEARS? ANNIE: I LIKE IT BUT, IT IS CALLED GAGA
BALL. SO MAYBE IF LADY GAGA ISN'T POPU-
